Not in RISM 1811 557 Reeve

THE BEE PROFITEERS HONEY BUT BEARS A STING,

A Favorite Ballad, Sung with the Most unbounded applause, by

Mr. Broadhurst,

AT

Sadler's Wells Theatre!

In the Venetian Water-Romance of the

COUNCIL OF TEN,

Or the

Lake of the Grott

Written by C. Dibdin Jun.

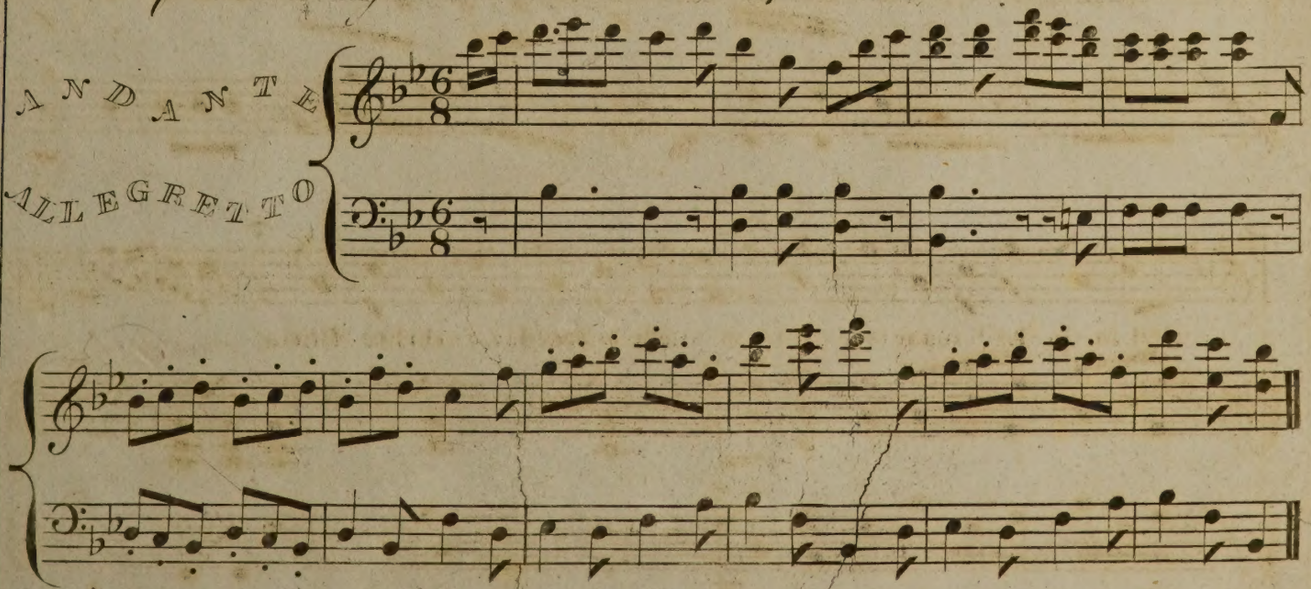
Composed and Arranged

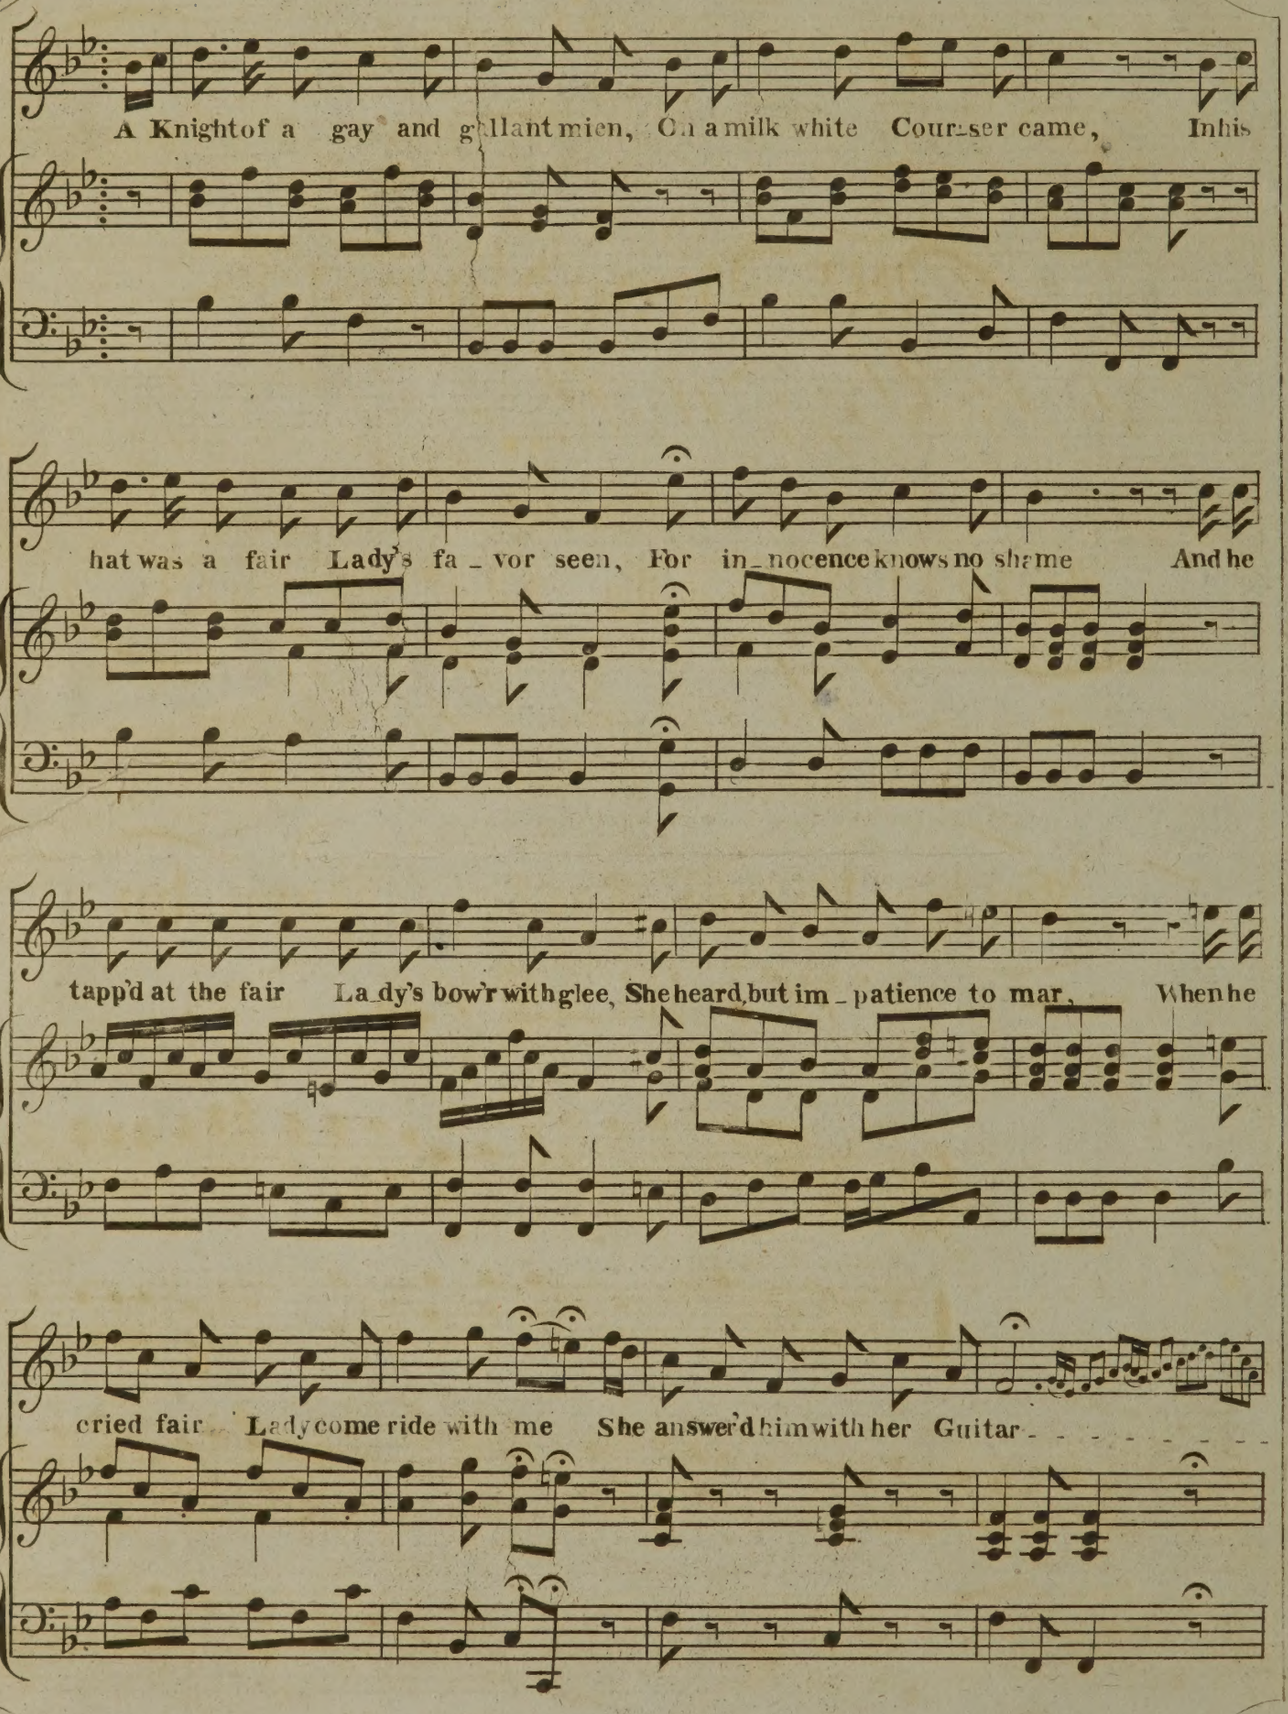
For the Piano Forte OR Harp, by

W. REEVE.

Ent. at Sta. Hall. Price 1/6

London Printed by Button & Whitaker, 75 St. Paul's Church Yard.





A Knight of a gay and gallant mien, On a milk white Courser came, In his hat was a fair Lady's fa_vor seen, For in_nocence knows no shame And he tapp'd at the fair La_dy's bow'r with glee, She heard, but im_patience to mar, When he cried fair Lady come ride with me She answer'd him with her Guitar

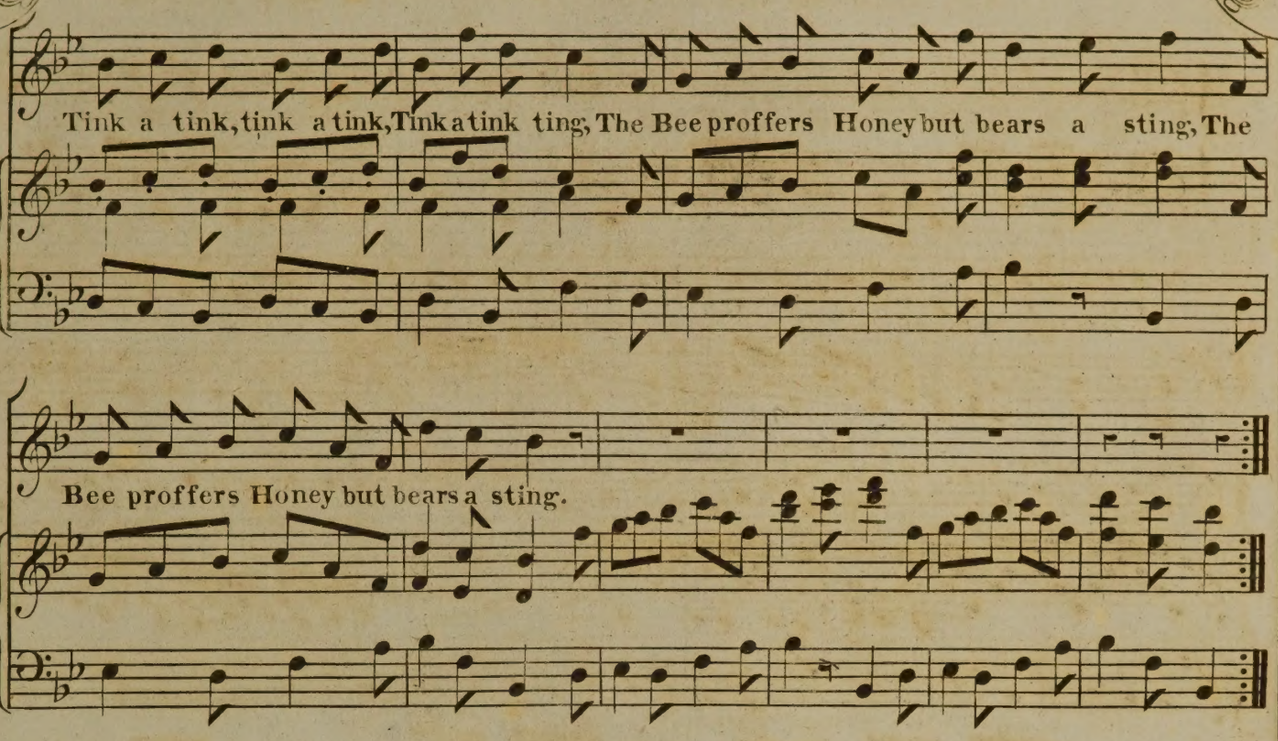
UPB



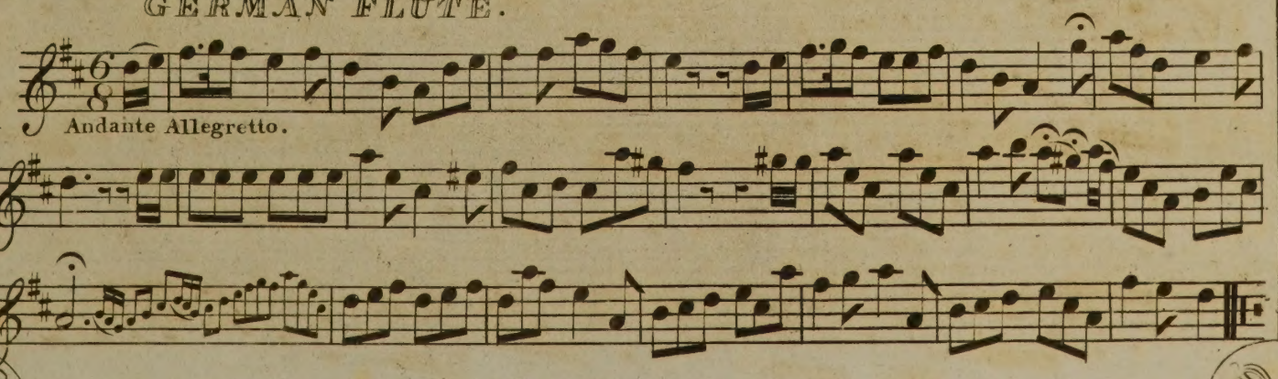
2

A Knight with a dark and scowling brow
On a coal black steed came by,
He heard the two Lovers exchange a vow,
And fury gave fire to his eye
But he courtesly said "if you're cross'd in Love
And would bear the fair Lady afar
My Sword and my service are your's to prove,
But the Lady she play'd her Guitar.
Tink a Tink &c.

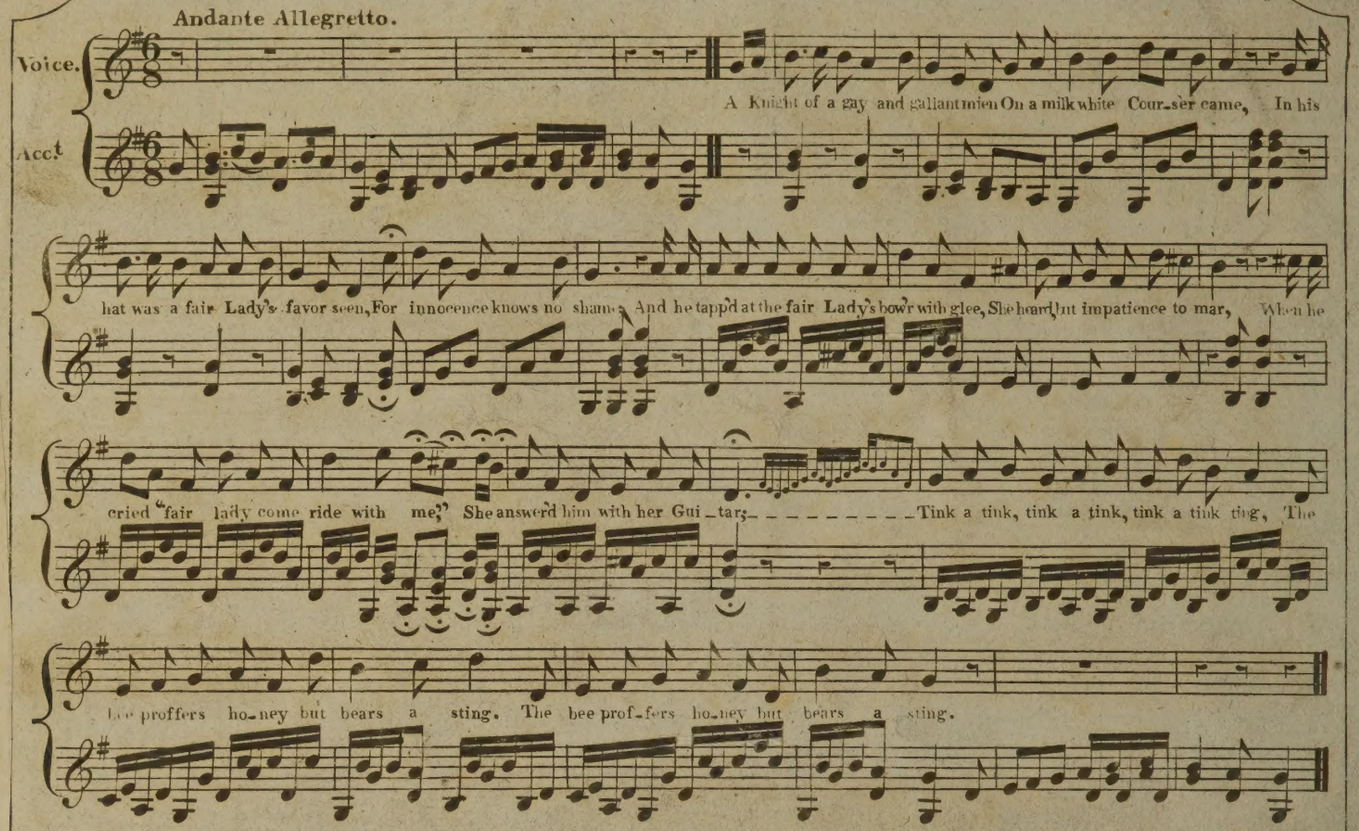
3

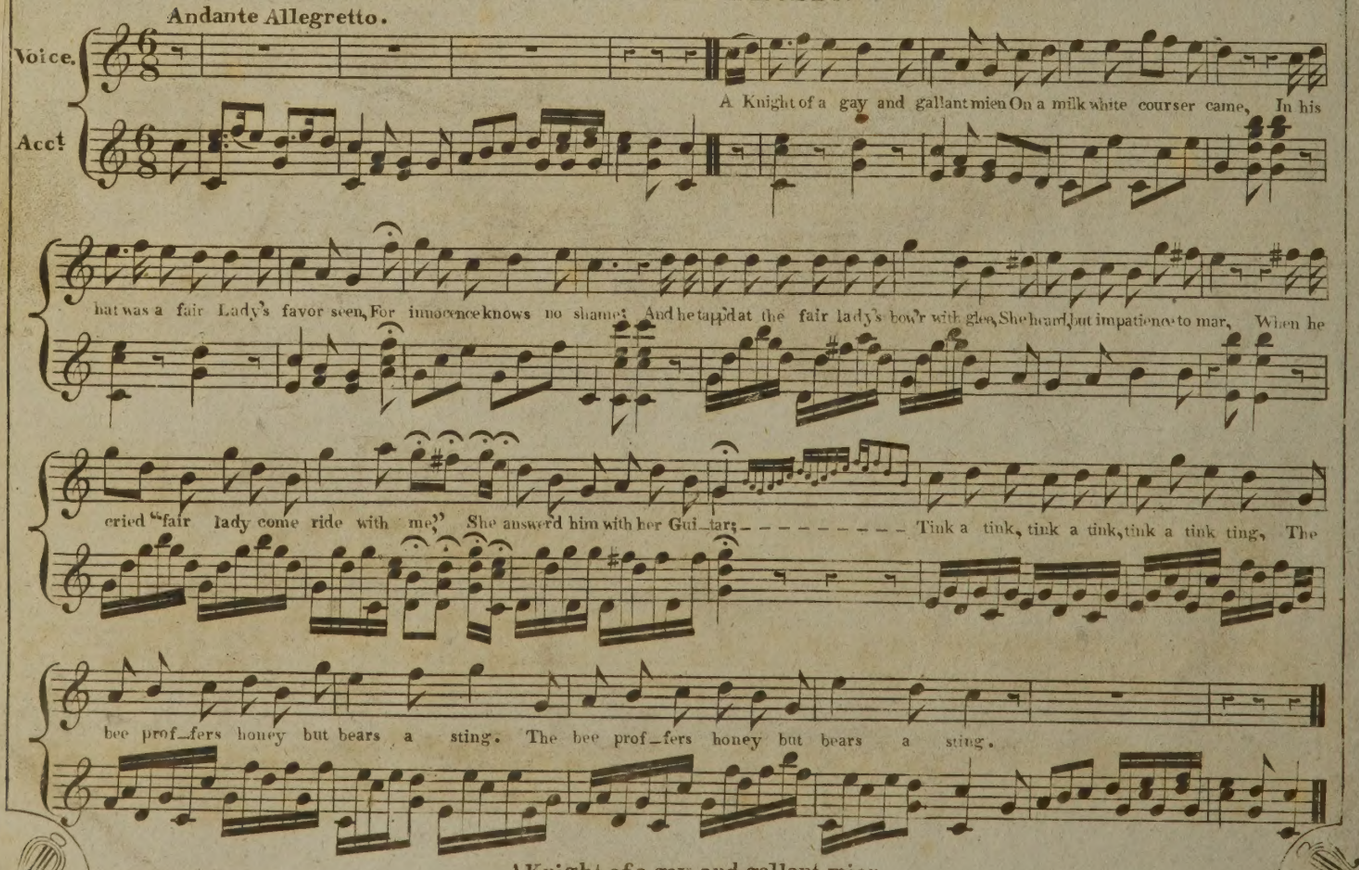
The Knight so gallant disappear'd that day;
And never was heard of more;
And the sable Knight made a proud display,
Of the favor that gallant Knight wore
The Lady he woo'd but he gain'd no grace,
And joy from his bosom went far,
For the Honey of hope to guilt's sting gave place
And conscience still play'd the Guitar.
Tink a Tink &c.

GERMAN FLUTE.



ARRANGED FOR THE SPANISH GUITAR BY MR J. TAYLOR.





FOR THE LUTE OR GUITAR.